

A Family Rooted in God's Promise

Dear TC Family,

As I think about what lies ahead for us, I'm reminded that Thanksgiving is just a few short weeks away. I've always believed it's one of the best holidays we celebrate. There are no gifts to buy, no elaborate decorations to set up, and very little commercialization. It's simply a time to gather with family and friends, to reflect on the blessings God has given us, and to share a meal that always brings joy (and maybe a little too much food!).

Today feels like the eve of another such moment of gratitude for Turlock Christian. Tomorrow night is our annual Gala - A Season of Promise - a time when our TC family gathers to celebrate, to support, and to strengthen the mission God has entrusted to us. My heart holds no anxiety, only deep joy and anticipation for what He will do.

Why such peace and joy? Because it's clear that God is with us. His presence can be seen in every classroom, in every act of kindness, in every teacher and coach who pour into their students, and in every parent who faithfully partners with us. His fingerprints are all over this school. When we seek to honor Him in all things, we truly participate in His good work.

Turlock Christian exists first and always to glorify God. Every success, every challenge, every moment of growth begins with that purpose. We also deeply honor our students and families; you are an essential part of what makes this place so special. Your prayers, your encouragement, and your support allow TC to continue offering excellent, Christ-centered education that changes lives for eternity.

So tonight, as we stand on this eve of anticipation, my heart is full. Whether you'll be joining us at the Gala or supporting from home, know that you are part of something far greater than a single evening; you are part of a family of faith and a future rooted in Christ.

“Commit to the Lord whatever you do, and He will establish your plans.”

Proverbs 16:3

With love and gratitude,
