

Continuing Christ-Centered Education with Confidence

TC Family,

At the end of last year, leadership at TC was in a very different place. The season felt tenuous at times, and we recognized the need for wise, steady, Christ-centered counsel. Through Kathy, Paul was introduced to the Board and me eight months ago, and after prayerful consideration, I engaged him as our consultant.

Since that time, Paul has been faithfully walking alongside us. With his strong faith, steady composure, and deep love for Christian education, and now for TC, he has helped our leadership stay grounded in our mission: to provide Christ-centered education and to faithfully, with excellence, know and educate the students entrusted to us. His counsel has been prayerful, God-centered, and steady, helping leadership remain unified, focused, and strong.

Because Paul has been walking closely with us, it is a natural next step for him to spend time on campus on Friday and Saturday. He brings over fifty years of experience in Christian education, has guided multiple leadership transitions, and currently serves as Head of School at Aliso Viejo Christian School.

This visit is also a reminder of the broader Christian education community supporting TC. Throughout this year, the leadership and community at Aliso Viejo Christian School have been intentionally praying for us. Their prayers have strengthened and encouraged our work, and as a TC family, we can extend the same blessing in return.

To help our community better understand the purpose of his visit, I want to share Paul's words:

Johanna, I am truly excited to experience TC firsthand. Over the past eight months of working together, I have grown to deeply appreciate this school and its mission. I know Kathy well and hold her in the highest regard. I have come to respect you, Johanna, and am grateful to call you a friend.

Having guided five schools through leadership transitions, I come eager to listen, learn, and understand. Like Nehemiah, who listened before he moved, I will listen carefully to the hearts of this community. I have already been praying and will continue to cover TC in prayer before and during my visit.

At the end of these two days, my goal is to provide clear guidance to Johanna, the Board, and Kathy regarding where we are and what our next faithful steps should be. I am confident that God will lead us in His timing and in His way.

I look forward to meeting our TC family...Paul

“The joy of the Lord is your strength.”
Nehemiah 8:10

For those unable to attend the Town Hall in person, we will be livestreaming the meeting. You may join us here:

Paul is excited to see TC and experience our community firsthand. His visit is another faithful step in a journey that has been prayerful and Christ-centered from the start.

As we walk through this season together, we remain united and confident that God is guiding every step. TC continues faithfully in our mission, grounded in Christ, and devoted to the students entrusted to us.

TC Family, thank you for your trust and prayers. Transitions may feel uncertain, but they are also moments when God’s faithfulness shines most clearly.
